SAN FRANCISCO, November 29. Sugar.—There is more tone to the market for Hawaiian and prices are better for all No. 1 grocery grades. The stoci of this description is light, and holders not inclined to pres sales, as there is no prospect of our receiving any further sup-plies from the islands this year. The advices from Honologic, which we publish elsewhere in these columns, is assuring that the islanders are determined to ship their surplus to the Colonies rather than to this Coust. New York advices, both public and private, quote improved rates for Cuban products. At the same time, the prices railing for White Refined are so very low, as to leave a wide margin for an advance. At the san time, prices with us are unchanged; yet the power to change prices is to a great extent concentrated in the California Re-finery, but when the change is to come we do not know. We quote Hawalian grocery grades at $200jc, according to quality. The Refiners' price list is, for Crushed, He; Cube and Powdered, Hig; Granulated, 10j@Hic; Golden "C," 9jc; China is firmly held at $j@920jc for the three grades in mate. RICE-The stock in warehouse is astonishingly large, and the market very flat, with considerable shipments from Chin en route. We fail to see any prospect for improvement for months to come. The stock of Rice on hand, November 21st 1873, was as follows: China, 19,337,559 fbs; Siam, 1,774,67; fbs; Patna, 1,365,050 fbs; Japan, 654,500 fbs; Sandwich Islands, 288,200 fbs; various, 801,920 fbs. Total, 15,222,892 fbs Monassus—We note sales, per recent arrivals, of 1,000 bbl Hawaiian, ex D. C. Murray and J. W. Seaver, to distillers at or about 22jc; other lots in jobbing parcels command 25% 28c, according to quality. At the same time extra choice i held at 30c. California Golden Syrup is held with considera ble firmness. The refiners' price is now 55c for kegs, 50c for hf bbls, and 475c in bbls.

Pulu-Quoted at 71@7]c. The Bulletin of November 25th says: The last vessel from Hopolulu, which arrived on Saturda night only 161 kegs Sugar, while the vessel which arrived a few days previously did not bring a pound. These are signifi-cant facts; and what is more, no further arrivals are expected cant facts; and what is more, no further arrivals are expected from the Hawaiian Islands this year. It is well known that the bulk of the ordinary grades of Sugar consumed on this coast is obtained from Honolulu. The quantity of these descriptions imported from the islands in 1870 was 11,571,600 lbs; in 1871, 13,631,000 lbs; and in 1872, 11,156,600 lbs. The average for those three years was 12,119,000 lbs. The imports for this year will fall short of this average by at least 1,500,600 lbs. The stock here is now much reduced. The maximum estimate is 5,000 kegs, and some estimates are as low as 4,000 kegs. It is known that Hawaiiin planters have found to kegs. It is known that Hawaiian planters have found Australia and New Zealand more profitable markets than California, and it is fesred the bulk of the crop will hereafter be shipped there, instead of this market. Dark grades in hage sent to the Colonies have netted planters more profit by one-half of the very large. We then the Colonies have netted planters more profit by one-half of the very large. half of one per cent. If it, than light grades sent here in kegs. One thing seems to be certain, and that is we must pay higher prices for Yellow Sugars or seek them from some other mar-

AN EDITORIAL WRITER for the Gazette, in commenting on the letter of the Hon. D. Kalakaua sible the future may be more fruitful of good; and if we fail herein we shall have nothing to regret. Because we favored that measure however it does not follow, now that the Ministry have given it the finishing stroke of defeat, that we should be blind to the faults of some of those who supported it, and for this reason we think it unfair that the Gazette should say-"It is well templated the banishment of a gentleman and his family for political expressions, arose from bitter national hostility." It is well known that Mr. triet of Honolulu, if indeed it did not represent | London agents. the then prevailing native Hawaiian sentiment of the Kingdom. It is also well known that the resolution in question, (in reference to the banishment of Mr. Castle) did not find a supporter; that in fact it fell still-born. In view of this truth, is it fair to say that the resolution "arose | Every consumer will prove these statements true by finding from bitter national hostility?" How long since | will be ample for these "raisined" products of the ALDEN Mr. Malo represented the nation? Indeed, the PROCESS. The natural fresh color, texture and flavor of the action of the meeting in refusing to give a support | fruit remains in it, and re-appears by proper treatment in to the resolution, and in point of fact refusing to cess of preserving being covered, and requiring but about five place it in order for discussion, plainly showed that amongst the hundreds present Mr. Malo had and dust are excluded; a great advantage over dried or desicnot a sympathizer. In our opionion, any efforts to fix a stigma upon the native population, or to create ill-feeling with the foreigner, or sympathy for Mr. Castle, based upon Mr. Malo's resolution, -savor of malice, or at all events of a disposition to create mischief. However, knowing the loose way in which our contemporary uses adjectives, we do not believe that "national" was the word intended to be used, but rather "personal." We

Again to quote from the Gazette: "And at a later period the threat was openly made that no person would be allowed to speak in public in advocacy of the Pearl River scheme." This foolish threat was made, it is true, but only in the native | mushroom Shipping Masters' slop-shops are not to be seen. If columns of the Nuhou, which are understood to | it is right that Shipping Masters shall also keep out-fitting stores be inspired by the same Mr. Malo above alluded to. That the threat however was nothing more number of than idle vaporing, is evident from the fact that the two purely native newspapers, Ko Hawaii Pof noi and the Kuokoa, both staunch supporters of the measure, lost no subscribers thereby; the natives in fact showing a disposition to know all that was to be said in favor of the scheme. It cannot n fairness be averred that the natives made any effort to prevent free discussion, although they had the power, at least by virtue of numbers. But taking the threat for all it was worth, it was only a Roland for the Gazette's Oliver. We refer to the covert menace of that journal of government

employees who opposed the cession. To return to the Gazette: "The attempt to put down Mr. Green at Kaumakapili Church certainly showed antagonism towards the speaker, if not towards foreigners generally." After reading this sentence one would suppose that Mr. Green had been speaking in favor of cession at the time; but it is well known that the subject under discussion was a resolution petitioning the King to appoint a successor-a measure that this journal had advocated and which has singe found favor with all classes in the community. In addressing the meeting, Mr. Green was pleased to refer to the Hon. D. Kalakaua as "a snake in the grass." The noisy demonstration against Mr. Green which followed was only a proof of the Colonel's popularity with the people, and it is certainly quite gratuitous to say that it "showed antagonism towards foreigners generally." Such a statement rather shows a disposition to breed discord by assuming its existence, and we must again beg off for the Gazette by declaring that we do not believe the writer meant to say just

Moreover the Gazette informs us that "At Wailuku, also, the animosity of a few natives towards foreigners was clearly shown, and came near terminating in open rupture." We must here give our contemporary credit for furnishing one item of news, for we confess that this is news to us. The efforts to prove that the late Ministerial measure was popular among the natives have doubtless crowded out of its columns, for some time past, any accounts of opposition FROM WINDWARD PORTS—Per Kilamez, Dec. 20th—Hon D Kalakama and wife, Hon Mrs C R Bishop, Capt Jas Makee and wife, Miss Nellie Makee, Miss Alice Makee, Miss Kitty Makee, Miss Rosa Makee, Miss Emma Widdemann. Mr W R Seal and now stand before this community. They were perhaps misled by the accounts given by their own Organ of the popularity of the proposed measure, and so the Organ is to be blamed for having manufactured bogus accounts for foreign consumption, without giving the Ministers a wink, by way of an "aside."

And last, but not least, the Gazette writer thinks that-" The truth regarding these threats before the Algebraic solution appeared in the Gazette; thinks that—" The truth regarding these threats but we deferred publishing it on account of the should be placed on record, and not suppressed or ignored, even though the occasion which led to them has fortunately passed away without any open collision, and it is to be hoped may not recur." Just here we must take decided issue, and for reasons which will appeal to the judgment of every right-thinking man in the community. The letter of the Hon. D. Kalakaua is evidently conceived in a conciliatory spirit, and the dispesition thus shown by a native chief, occupying so prominent a position in the Kingdom, to harmonize the somewhat discordant elements of our society, should be cordially zecognized, rather than repulsed by petulant criticism. In preference to endeavoring to keep alive the embers of discord engendered by the discussion =0. 31 1040 fs. of cession, we shall aim to extinguish them by encouraging any and all efforts to assure the era of peace and good-will.

THE AFFAIR of the Virginius, which so engrossed public attention in the States up to nearly the end of November, appears by the telegram received early on the 29th to have ceased to be a casus belli between Spain and America, so that the din of preparation for war was doubtless hushed after that date. But although the government of Madrid has wisely conceded the demands of that of Washington, it is by no means certain that no difficulties will arise in the attempt to carry out the policy professed by Castelar, owing to the state of feeling in Cuba. It is quite well known that the old Spanish party in the "ever faithful isle" is not only bitterly hostile to America, but is also opposed to the Republic which is struggling for existence in the mother country. The settlement of the Cuban question and the pacification of the island is apparently as far off as ever, and the danger of the United States becoming eventually embroiled is still apparent.

The Australian Line.

A letter received in this city from J. C. Merrill & Co., agents of the Australia and California Line of steamers, says that the Macgregor, the first boat,

MR. EDITOR .- SEVERAL OF THE RE-TAIL Store keepers of Honolulu desire through this medium to lay before the public what they consider as a GRIEVANCE, connected with their business. The former Minister of the Interior made it a rule of his office not to grant a license to keep a Shipping Office for Seamen to a party who was in any way interested in a store. That is not the case now, and the result is that sailors are in a manner forced to deal with the Shipping Masters for their out-fits, at stores set up FOR THE SEASON ONLY, and also that if sailors owe any other store they do not can readily believe that Mr. Malo's resolution pay such debts, their advance going through the hands of the Shipping Master, who can advise them that they are not obliged to pay any debts but such as they have been induced to contract with him. This is not fair, either for us or the scaman, In allowing this state of things, government is not doing the square thing with us who are regular traders and keep our stocks throughout the year, in the dull season, while these for seamen, then put the license of Shipping Masters up at auction, so that all may have an equal chance.
